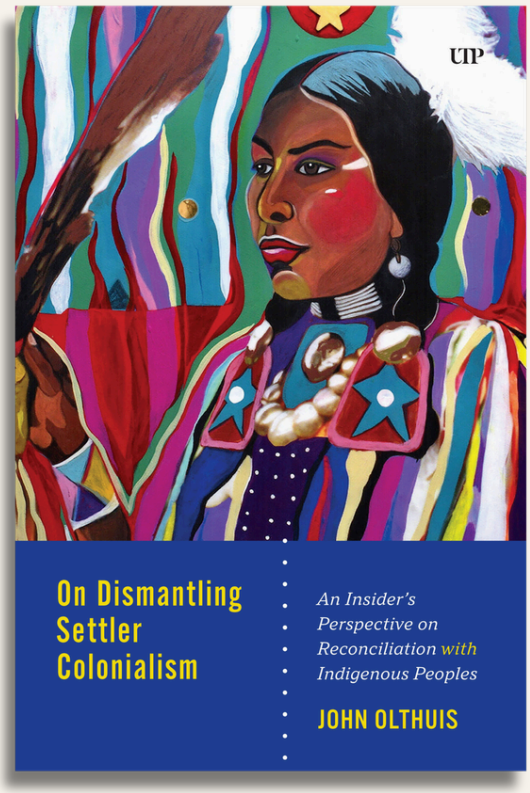
From Land Acknowledgements to Action: will you join us?

This National Indigenous Peoples Day, don't miss your chance to join From Land Acknowledgements to Action, a campaign program from Citizens for Public Justice where we're working directly with Christian communities to develop practical reconciliation action plans–helping you translate faith and concern into real advocacy that pushes governments toward change.



Sign up to:

- Be part of a national ecumenical network of local faith communities pursuing authentic reconciliation with Indigenous peoples
- Explore the foundational calls for change from John Olthuis' landmark book On Dismantling Settler Colonialism
- Work with a framework that helps you build a plan of action for your community
